Another new event for a busy October. There is a limit of 40 people, so sign up early! At 4:00, we will have a tour and a chance to try out the simulator – a remarkable experience to know you are not moving but still feel like you're on the deck of a ship at sea. At 5:30, dinner will be served cafeteria style – steak, fish, chicken, lots of veggies and loads of desserts. Cost $16.00 per person - a bargain for a fun evening!

See the insert for directions and mail-in form.

Our Gala Event of the Year!

Annual Dinner

Saturday, November 22

Harbortowne Resort

This highlight of the year is a splendid chance to don your best bib and tucker (or kilt!) and support your society on this gala occasion. The committee has been working very hard to make this the best one ever. Please note the date and plan to come. Invitations and details will be sent out soon.

The Games Are Upon Us!

Chesapeake Celtic Festival

Saturday October 4

Furnace Town MD

More information: <http://www.celticfest.net/> or 410-632-2032

A new event for us and one we think you will all enjoy. It is held right here on the Eastern Shore at Furnace Town Living History Museum near Snow Hill. There are two stages and a pub tent with continuous entertainment, wine tasting of Maryland wine, whisky tasting, Irish dancers, pipe bands, border collies, puppets, a costumed living history market place, and a food court - all with plenty of free parking and shuttle service. Tickets are $12 per day (children $3). We will have our tent set up, so come see us!

Anne Arundel Games

Saturday October 11

Anne Arundel Fairgrounds, Crownsville MD

More information: 410-923-3516

This is one of the best and the nearest of all the games. There will be nonstop entertainment featuring internationally known recording artists and groups, clan tents, and a marketplace for food and gifts. Kilted pipers and athletes compete from 9 to 5, as do Highland dancers. Come hear the bands and much more. Our tent will give you a chance to rest your feet and visit.

If you'd like to help with the games, please contact Jim McConnell at 410-745-5344 to volunteer for a fun day (or two!).
